

Go to Market Plan Template for Premium Onboarding Packages

Executive Summary	What is the high-level overview of your offering and how will you take it to market?
Purpose	What is the offering and why do users need it? The purpose might include reducing customer time to value, reducing support queue, or increasing product usage.
Audience	Who is this product for? Your audience might include enterprise companies, small to mid-sized companies, or all customers.
Success Metrics	Which metrics will you use to measure your impact? How will you capture, track, and share the metrics? Make sure the metrics tie into the purpose. For example, if reducing the support queue is the purpose of the offering, then demonstrate the impact on the support queue over time. <table> <tr> <th>Leading indicators</th><th>Lagging Indicators</th></tr> <tr> <td> - Number of customers onboarded - Time to first value - Onboarding timeline - Attach rate of premium packages - Bookings and margins - Support tickets: volume and time to close - Customer health score - Customer satisfaction / NPS </td><td> - Renewal rates - Upsell amounts </td></tr> </table>	Leading indicators	Lagging Indicators	- Number of customers onboarded - Time to first value - Onboarding timeline - Attach rate of premium packages - Bookings and margins - Support tickets: volume and time to close - Customer health score - Customer satisfaction / NPS	- Renewal rates - Upsell amounts
Leading indicators	Lagging Indicators
- Number of customers onboarded - Time to first value - Onboarding timeline - Attach rate of premium packages - Bookings and margins - Support tickets: volume and time to close - Customer health score - Customer satisfaction / NPS	- Renewal rates - Upsell amounts
Delivery	How will this product be delivered? Who will deliver this product? Delivery options might include onsite consulting and self-paced courses. What are the costs for delivering this product?
Business Model & Pricing Strategies	What is the business model? Will your organization run as a cost, break-even, or profit center? Work with your finance team to determine the best approach for your product and team, for the short term and the longer term. What will you charge for this product? Consider the following pricing options. <table> <tr> <td> - Required - Optional - Separate line item - Bundled in with license - Discounting policies </td><td> - Uplift license price - Percentage on top of license - Renewing subscription - One-time fee </td></tr> </table>	- Required - Optional - Separate line item - Bundled in with license - Discounting policies	- Uplift license price - Percentage on top of license - Renewing subscription - One-time fee
- Required - Optional - Separate line item - Bundled in with license - Discounting policies	- Uplift license price - Percentage on top of license - Renewing subscription - One-time fee
Resources & Costs	How will you resource this plan? What team members, tools, and infrastructure requirements are required?

Marketing Strategies

How will you market this new offering? Your premium onboarding package could be a key differentiator to set you apart from your competitors. Work with marketing teams to create branding that highlights and sells the value, and then market to internal teams as well as customers.

Sales Plan

How will you sell this product? You need both internal and customer facing plans to sell your new offering.

About Donna Weber

Donna Weber, Customer onboarding expert, Donna Weber is a recognized Customer Success thought leader, influencer, and strategist. Donna is an author, speaker, and consultant who gets to the heart of the matter. She is passionate about making your customers successful, so you are successful. Connect with Donna on LinkedIn.
Our services include:

Customer Success
Strategy

Scalable Customer
Onboarding

Customer Journey
Mapping

Current Customer
Care & Maturity

Go to Market
